

Land of the Little People

Land of the Little People is a real winner for audiences of all ages! The show captures the imagination of anyone who has ever wondered about the belief in the Little People. In this heartwarming story, Harry Stubb faces his troubles with the guidance of two magical Little People. Their trail leads from the noisy old toys in Harry's room to the peaceful Scarecrow, Clementine. Harry faces his fears by crossing the treacherous Spooky Creek. In the last scene, while sharing a moment with his Grandfather he is rewarded beneath a shimmering rainbow where the Little People dance.

The funny and touching tale of two magical Little People helping Harry Stubb face his troubles.

Come along with Maritime Marionettes and explore the ancient belief in a simpler, smaller world. The lifelike marionettes tell the heartwarming story of Harry Stubb who faces his troubles with the help of the magical Little People.

Harry Stubb was a bored and worried young boy, who was sent to his Grandpa's where there weren't many toys.

Just a strange wooden box and an old puppet stage that belonged to his Grandpa in a forgotten age.

But then one day
his Grandpa did say, when he was a young boy
he saw Little People at play.

From that day on Harry's life was to change, for later that night in the shadows they came...

Join Harry Stubb as he is unknowingly guided by Brave and Shadow, two magical Little People. Their trail leads from the noisy old toys in Harry's room to the peaceful Scarecrow, Clementine. Crossing the treacherous Spooky Creek, the troubled Harry faces his fears and puts his worries to rest. He is rewarded beneath a brilliant, shining rainbow where he beholds the joyful dance of the elusive Little People.

Credits:

Story: Darryll Taylor,
Puppet Design: Heather Bishop Taylor
Original Music & Sound Effects: Paul Cram Costume Design : Jacqueline Allen

Voices:

Jocelyn Cunningham
Martha Irving
Rosalie MacDougall
Mike Petersen
Ken Strong

Maritime Marionettes P0 Box 1426 Truro NS Canada B2N 5V2; toll free in North America 1-877-917-4697; tel 902 893-7626; www.maritime-marionettes.com taylor@maritime-marionettes.com