

Molly and the Oak Island Treasure

*Her uncle sang of a treasure hidden deep in the Oak Island ground.
with great strength and clear wisdom ,
this treasure could surely be found.*

*Another voice whispers softly
to her spirit as she points to the wind.
Her fortune, read by the witch Dianna,
foretold treasure and an unknown friend.*

*The treasure they seek will allude them
like the wind that pushes their sails.
They're helped by the Mik'maq Boy, Ulgimmo,
and a friendly humpback whale.*

*So come sailing with Molly and Pixie
and be charmed as this tale is told.
For a treasure awaits all who join us
to watch Molly's adventure unfold.*

Molly, her boat, and Pixie, her little fairy friend, set out on a marvelous adventure in search of buried treasure. Along the way she meets new friends that help her in completing her wondrous journey. The wooden marionettes come to life in the hands of Heather and Darryll Taylor enchanting children and parents alike. A treasure hunt for self-discovery, Molly and the Oak Island Treasure will touch your heart and awaken the child in us all.

Molly and the Oak Island Treasure features 13 puppets. An original 46 minute production suitable for all ages, the show has a rich Maritime theme and embraces a positive self-esteem message for young people. Molly and the Oak Island Treasure premiered in 1994 and has since toured Atlantic Canada, Ontario, Quebec, Hawaii, Bermuda and France.

Script: Darryll and Heather Taylor; Marionettes: Bruce Wood, Heather Taylor Voices: Deborah Allen, Jamie Bradley, Kelti MacMillan, Elizabeth Murphy, Darryll Taylor; Costumes: Robert Doyle Original Music: Quita Gray; Instrumentation: Quita Gray, the Barra MacNeils (courtesy of Polygram Records) Humpback Whale Sounds: Dr. Roger Payne and NYZS/the Wildlife Conservation Society; Project assisted by: the Canada/Nova Scotia Cooperation Agreement on Cultural Development, Cultural Affairs Division of the Nova Scotia Department of Education.

Maritime Marionettes P0 Box 1426, Truro, NS Canada B2N 5V2; toll free 1-877-917-4697; tel 902 893-7626;
www.maritime-marionettes.com; taylor@maritime-marionettes.com